This spacious ground floor townhouse has a large living room, a kitchen which requires units and appliances, and three double bedrooms and one single bedroom. The single bedroom could be made into a double by removal of a small part of a wall. The main bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and dressing room, and there is also a family bathroom. There are several fitted wardrobes, and the property has just been completely reformed and so is in perfect condition. It is centrally located in the village of Monda, within walking distance of the facilities.
